OUR CHURCHES.

Denominational and Personal.

PRAYER MEETINGS.—The different churches have their regular weekly prayer meetings generally every Wednesday evenings, attended by the pastor, and a small per cent. of the membership. This service is a test of the devotion and zeal of professing Christians, for the prayer meeting attendants are always the hope and strength of the church. Rustling out on clear Sabbaths, (and a little late for effect,) to the best pews in the audience room of the church may look pretty and sound nice; but after all, the real joy and glory of worship are better expressed by prompt attendance upon the social means of grace between Sabbaths. There the fashionisms and annoyances of the world are thrown aside for closer heart-approaches to Jesus; and the Spirit of love touches the soul and brightens the eye and loosens the tongue, and the service is beautiful and blessed because spontaneous and free. If every one who knows his name to be on the church register, and who would honor a solemn Sabbath vow, as well as a business promise at the bank, could but realize the duty of attending the regular social prayer meetings of his church, what a wondrous change in the life and power of the Christian community there would be! But obligations to God are estimated at so low a standard, as to be forgotten and ignored for the purpose of holding an engagement with a social companion at a party, or with a neighbor or tradesman in business. Now, church members who habitually and persistently absent themselves from the appointed means of grace in their own sanctuaries, without any better excuse than to say, "I'm too busy," are, in Heaven's sight, as delinquent and untrustworthy as if their notes had been wilfully neglected and protested in the bank. The Church of Christ languishes on account of the religious copperheadism of her membership. The world, the flesh and the devil have made conservatives of thousands who have not the courage to be brave and loyal in the cause of Jesus Christ.

PRAISE MEETINGS.—In the Smithfield street Methodist Episcopal Church, every Tuesday evening, the young people of the Sabbath School and their friends assemble in the capacity of a praise meeting, to sing the songs of Zion. Generally the Superintendent, Mr. W. W. Moorehead, and sometimes the pastor, Dr. Miller, are present to encourage the singers and drop words of kind exhortation and counsel to all. The music is directed by Mr. Edwin Sherratt, a well-known and competent teacher. Certainly such meetings are profitable as well as pleasant, and every church should institute some method of this kind to bind the young people together in a christian sympathy and love.

THE Presbyterian Church of Sharpsburg has given a unanimous call to the Rev. T. M. Wilson, formerly pastor of the church at Ebensburg, Penn. The meeting which extended the call was unusually large, and the greatest good feeling prevailed.

BEECHER'S PRAYERS.—Messrs. Harper & Brothers have in press a volume of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher's prayers, reported without his knowledge from his ordinary pulpit services. It will be a volume of peculiar beauty and pathos, for in no part of Beecher's life is he so impressive and humbly eloquent as when he prays. The public are awaiting the book with great interest. The same house have also in press a new volume of sermons by the same author.

CHURCHES that have not yet reported delegates to the Christian Union Convention to assemble on Tuesday next, in this city, should do so at once, as Monday will be the last day for making final arrangements. Let names of delegates and names of parties who are willing to entertain guests, or to assist in doing so by contributions, be reported to Alex. R. Riggs, Secretary, 23 Fifth street.

A sermon before the Young Men's Christian Association will be preached to-morrow evening in the First Methodist Church, Fifth street, by the pastor. The discourse in the regular order of the evening series now being delivered in that church, will, by request, be addressed to the Association in conjunction with the usual audience which worships in the place.

The following is a list of topics to be discussed at the Union Christian Convention in the First Presbyterian Church, next week:

I. THE CHRISTIAN.—How can we increase our personal devotion; and sense of responsibility; and best secure preparation for Christian work?

II. THE CHURCH.—How shall we develop individual Churches; manifest our essential unity, and improve devotional meeting?

III. THE CHURCH AND THE WORLD.—How shall we ascertain destitutions; reach special classes; carry the gospel to remote neighborhoods; so improve Church arrangements as to secure a larger attendance; and overcome the special difficulties arising from the temptations and excitements of city life?

IV. THE CHURCH AND CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS.—What are the relations, primary aim and object of Young Men's Christian Associations; their best method of operation; with instances of their adaptation and efficiency?

V. THE CHURCH, CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS, AND OUR COUNTRY.—What special demands do the vast territory, and the rapidly increasing population, and the character of the numerous immigrants, make upon all Christians and Christian organizations in this land?

THE ladies of the South Pittsburgh M. E. Church will hold a fair in the Birmingham Town Hall on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, for the benefit of the church. The cause is a worthy one, and should elicit the attention and patronage of the Christian community.

REV. J. B. BITTENGER, formerly pastor of the Euclid street Presbyterian Church, Cleveland, now of Sewickly, Pa., has been nominated to a professorship in the Theological Department of Iberlin College, Ohio.

A VERY PLEASANT AFFAIR was the social excursion from the Female College, a few days since, to Altoona, under the care of President Pershing. About fifty teachers, scholars and friends, were happily treated to a ride across the mountains, a sight of Horse beauties and grandeurs by the way, a rich entertainment at the hotel, and a general good time. Such lessons are as important as any in books, and make college life and associations delightful indeed.

THE Second Methodist Church, Wylie street, Rev. J. B. Graham, pastor, is in better condition than for years past. The congregation and Sunday School classes are steadily increasing, the families of the church and all its friends interested and active, and altogether the church in a state of prosperity.

THE Science of National Theology is a new and very excellent work just issued by Henry Hoyt, Publisher, Boston. The author is Rev. Asa Mahan, D. D., of the Methodist Church, and President of Adrian College, Michigan. From the reputation of the author the book must have a large sale. Dr. Mahan was until recently a Congregationalist, but he has long advocated the peculiar doctrinal views of Methodism.

REV. JACOB ABBOTT, author of the "Young Christian," the "Rollo Books," "Harper's Story Books," &c., has been engaged as a regular contributor to Our Schoolday Visitor, for next year, the twelfth volume of which will begin in January next. The Visitor is edited by Alex. Clark, pastor of the First Methodist Church, of this city, and published by J. W. Daughaday & Co., Philadelphia. It has several eminent contributors, among whom are Alice Carey, Rev. John Todd, D. D., Virginia F. Townsend, Emily Huntington Miller, and Mrs. Mary A. Dennison. The next volume will be in a new dress, still superior to its present beautiful and becoming one. The circulation is upwards of thirty thousand copies.

REFORMED CHURCH.—Westmoreland Classis of the Reformed Church held their annual meeting at Salem, Westmoreland county, Pa., recently, Rev. C. C. Russell, President. The reports of the past year were very encouraging, showing very marked progress in nearly all parts of the Classis. The contributions during the year for various benefactions of the church were nearly triple the amount contributed during the former year, and over ten times the amount contributed four years ago. Two new missions were added during the year, Johnstown and Cumberland, and Rev. Keener called to the former and Rev. Wanner to the latter. Rev. F. R. Lewars, of Mt. Pleasant, was elected Missionary Bishop for the current year, and the following delegates were elected to Synod: Revs. Wm. Roup, J. H. Wagner, J. A. Peters, A. J. Heller, and Elders T. J. Craig, Wm. Zimmerman, A. Hay and Wm. Boyer.

WESLEY CHAPEL.—We notice a neat handbill circulated in the Fifth Ward and vicinity, giving the times of service in Wesley Chapel Methodist Episcopal Church, with the pastor's residence, &c., and commend this method of calling public attention to the exercises of the Church. Surely such a course is in accordance with the very spirit of the Gospel. There are scores of indifferent people whose attention may be arrested by such an invitation to worship, and the published card shows an interest and an effort which are more emphatic than if merely whispered requests were made, and those only under fashionable circumstances. There will be special religious services at Wesley Chapel, Rev. L. McGuire, pastor, every evening for a while, commencing on Monday evening next. The pastor will be assisted by Revs. J. W. Baker, R. L. Miller, H. Miller, D. D., J. F. Jones, L. F. Morgan, D. D., E. B. Snyder and others, and the public are earnestly solicited to attend.

THE Union Baptist Congregation, Grant street, have recently received a letter from Rev. Wm. Young, Wilmington, North Carolina, accepting their call to the pastorate of their church. Ten years ago Mr. Y., then residing in Virginia, received a call from this same church. He accepted it, but so earnest were his people to retain him that they sent a delegation to Pittsburgh and obtained from the church here permission to withdraw his engagement, thus releasing him honorably. He is expected soon.

Official Majority in Pennsylvania.

The returns from the several counties in the State of the vote polled for Supreme Judge on Tuesday, 8th inst., were opened at Harrisburg yesterday. Judge Sharswood received 267,746, and Judge Williams 266,824, leaving a majority for Sharswood, Democrat, of 922.

Fourteenth Senatorial District.

Samuel C. Wingard, Esq., of Williamsport, Republican candidate for State Senator, will contest the seat of Jno. B. Beck, Democrat, who is elected by five votes. The frauds in Lycoming county are said to be easily proved, and the friends of Mr. Wingard feel confident that he will secure his seat.

THE Baltimore American administers a sharp rebuke to the editors of the Tribune for their course towards Gen. Grant. Referring to the popular movements in favor of the General, the American says:

"The wishes and views of the Tribune can no more control and divert that than its articles for 'peace at any price,' in 1861, or the previous article in 1861, to let them (the Southern States) 'slide,' could change the firm resolution to have 'peace' at their price, and to retain it and subject to the Union the communities which had rebelled."

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 18, 1867.

BOILER EXPLOSION—THREE MEN KILLED.

A boiler used in loading and unloading steamers of the Liverpool, New York and Philadelphia Line, situated in a shed at Pier No. 45, North River, blew up this afternoon with a terrible explosion. The main portion of the boiler was thrown from the pier, carrying away two heavy piles and a portion of the wall. The large shed extending across the pier was utterly demolished, and the lighter portions of boiler and machinery sent through the roof of the principal freight shed. Three persons were killed outright, and five wounded, some probably fatally. The killed are Christie Gorrey, engineer; Owen Kelly, fireman on the steamer City of Baltimore, and Nicholas Gorrey, son of the engineer, aged about seven. The whole body was not recovered, having been blown into the dock. The wounded are Thomas Kane, Thos. Lathers, Wm. Reed, Jno. Driscoll, and Samuel Hutchinson, who were scalded or injured by falling timbers.

TO BE IMPRISONED FOR LIFE.

Vincent Cody, convicted of the murder of Prof. John R. Livingston, was this morning sentenced to the State prison for life.

SENTENCED FOR TEN YEARS.

Thos. Lambert, convicted of arson, was sentenced to the State prison for eleven years and six months.

COUNTERFEITER HELD TO BAIL.

Alex. Cockard, arrested at Winfield, Long Island, on a charge of manufacturing counterfeit twenty-five cent currency, has been held to bail in $10,000.

COLLISION.

A collision is reported on the Hornellsville Branch of the Erie Railway, near Nunda, wrecking a stock train. The engineer and a brakeman were killed, and several drovers more or less injured.

DEATH OF A BOSTON MERCHANT.

Henry Rice, a Boston merchant, died Thursday at the age of eighty-two.

PENNSYLVANIA MISSIONARIES.

Rev. E. M. Wherry and wife, Rev. Charles B. Newton, and Rev. Francis Keye, Jr., of Pennsylvania, sailed from Boston on Wednesday for Calcutta, to engage in the missionary cause.

THE PHILADELPHIA FAILURES.

Of the failures in Philadelphia the Ledger says: "We regret to announce the failure, yesterday, of Pancoast & Hornock, auctioneers, on Market street. The worthy firm, while unfavorably affecting other houses, but from all we could learn, they were entirely without foundation."

ATLANTIC AND GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY.

The report of the English Committee on the condition of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway states they found the property in a much worse condition than they expected, but with the expenditure of $260,000, could be put in good order and the business increased. The administration of the Receiver, R. B. Porter, is praised, and good results anticipated from his management. The property has improved within six months, and the traffic from April 1st to March 31st next will probably reach 85,-750,000, and the completion of the Lincoln branch will give the road a large coal business. The Committee in conclusion report that the road is worth more than the divisional bonds, but not the share capital. It is proposed to have the back coupons on the bonds paid with a seven per cent. first preference stock, the interest on which is to be out of the first earnings of the company applicable to dividends, and they further suggested that the other creditors should be paid in five per cent. second preference non-accumulative shares, so that in 1871 it might be a complete line, with but $30,000,000 bonded debt, and a share capital of $30,000,000, earning interest upon all its bonds, and also something towards its shares.

DOMINION OF CANADA.

Another Fenian Raid Foreshadowed.

TORONTO, October 17.—The Ottawa correspondent of the Globe says he has special information confirming the statement regarding the Fenian arms at Potsdam. The arms are those seized by the United States Government in 1866, and lately restored to the agents. About 4,000 stands have arrived at Potsdam, and a lot of cavalry saddles. It is supposed the Fenians will take advantage of the elections to come off in New York and attempt a raid when both political parties least desire to quarrel with them. The Government authorities of Canada are in full possession of information as to the movements, and the necessary precautions have been taken.

PHILADELPHIA.

Contested Election—Democratic Frauds.

PHILADELPHIA, October 18.—The Republican candidates for Register of Wills, Clerk of the Orphans' Courts, and City Commissioners, have commenced a contest in the Court of Common Pleas with the Democrats who received certificates. Election frauds are alleged in many wards. In one precinct the Democratic election officers are said to have received one hundred and ninety-six votes from persons not on the list of voters. Similar frauds are charged in the Second, Tenth, Fifteenth, Seventeenth and Twenty-fifth wards, more than enough to change the result.

BOSTON.

A Woman Burned to Death—Another Severely Injured.

BOSTON, October 18.—Mrs. Caroline Ware, housekeeper in a family residing at No. 106 Boylston street, was last evening burned to death, and a German girl named Watts also so fearfully burned that it is feared her injuries will prove fatal. The catastrophe occurred from igniting a can of benzine with which the two women were cleaning furniture.

Explosion in a Quarry—Seven Men Injured.

BURLINGTON, Vt., October 18.—Last evening seven men were injured, three probably fatally, by the premature explosion of a blast in the slate quarry of J. J. Williams, at Fairhaven, Vt. Two kegs of gunpowder were being poured into a crevice, which probably contained fire from a previous blast.

The Fever in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, October 18.—There were thirty-four interments from yellow fever today. The Howard Association has sent fifteen nurses to Memphis for yellow fever patients.

The Crawford County Annual Fair—New and Extensive Grounds—A Grand Success—Sudden Death.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

BUCYRUS, O., October 18, 1867.

The Crawford County Fair closed to-day. The society have purchased and fitted up during the present season, new and extensive grounds, and now have as fine grounds as can be found in the State. The weather has been beautiful, and the fair a grand success—said to have been the best in Northern Ohio the present season. The attendance was very large on the third day, there being over ten thousand persons on the ground. The receipts are about twenty-five hundred dollars.

The show of horses was very fine. The premiums for trotting and pacing were both taken by horses owned by Thomas Coons, of Monroeville, O.

A young man by the name of George R. Young fell from his horse, dead, while returning from the fair grounds on Thursday, supposed to have been caused by heart disease.

There were several exciting contests among the different base ball clubs for the prizes offered by Mr. E. E. Kearsley, of this place. The contest for the first prize did not come off, owing to a misunderstanding between the clubs as to the time the game was to be played. It will be contested for at some future day by the Resolute Club, of Galion, and Enterprise, of Bucyrus. The first prize for second nines was won by the Enterprise, of Bucyrus. The first prize for junior clubs was won by the Star, of Bucyrus, beating the Rough and Ready, of North Robinson, and the Young America, of Crestline. The latter was a remarkably well played and closely contested game, the score standing twenty to nineteen in favor of the Stars.

FORT WAYNE, IND.

Robbery of Silver Ware from a Dwelling House.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

FORT WAYNE, IND., October 18, 1867.

The silver ware of Mr. Fryberger, and Jacob Leesman, worth about six hundred dollars, was stolen to-day out of Mr. Fryberger's house. They are putting a new roof on his house, and it is supposed the thieves entered the house in that way, while the carpenters were at their meals. There is no trace of the robbers.

The country banks are required to have a reserve of fifteen per cent. of circulation and deposits, two-fifths of which must be lawful money, and three-fifths of which may be in those certificates, or if preferred, one-half of this reserve may be in cash deposited with the redemption agent in New York, two-fifths in lawful money and the remaining one-tenth in the three per centum certificates. I am, very respectfully,

ST. LOUIS.

Trial by Military Commission Unconstitutional.

ST. LOUIS, October 18.—Wm. Murphy, who has been confined in the Missouri Penitentiary for the last two years, under sentence by Military Commission for boat burning on the Mississippi river during the war, was brought before the United States Circuit Court on Wednesday, and the case argued on an application for discharge. Judge Miller decided the case to day by discharging the prisoner, on the ground of the unconstitutional tribunal by which Murphy was tried and sentenced. The Judge in his decision held that the President in the same position now as though he had not been tried and sentenced by military tribunal, and could be arraigned and tried upon the charges by civil courts. On motion of the District Attorney, the prisoner was remanded to confinement until to-morrow, to allow an opportunity to renew the old charges or prefer new ones, if such exist.

Late advices from New Mexico say a large meeting of citizens of the territory was held at Santa Fe September 21st, to consider measures to secure the extension of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad through New Mexico to the Pacific Ocean. Governor Mitchell presided, and speeches were made by General Palmer, Treasurer of the Railroad Company; Maj. Calhoun, Chief Justice Slogan, Hon. C. R. Cleaver, delegate to Congress, and others, all taking strong grounds in favor of the enterprise. A long series of resolutions were adopted, setting forth numerous reasons why the road should be built, and recommending Congress to extend the same aid to this road as has been or may be granted to the Union Pacific route.

In a match to-day, between the Kentucky horse Rolla Gold Dust and the St. Louis mare Tuckey, the former won the race, Tuckey being distanced. Time 2:35.

NASHVILLE.

New Police—Pocket Picked—Cold-Blooded Murder—Union Depot.

NASHVILLE, October 18.—The Metropolitan Police went on duty to-night.

The Legislature was not in session to-day, having adjourned to attend the fair at Franklin. The members are delighted with the courtesy shown them there.

Senator Rogers yesterday offered resolutions in the Senate in favor of paying bonds with greenbacks. He is one of the oldest and ablest Radicals in that body.

John L. Amos, of Georgia, had his pockets picked to-day, at Chattanooga depot, of $1,000.

A few days ago a party of men called at the residence of Mr. Porter, three miles from Johnsonville, and enticed him off, under pretence of wishing him as a witness on a trial. After they had gone some distance, Wm. Pierce came out of the bushes and shot him dead. Pierce was afterwards arrested, but made his escape. The remainder of the party were held for trial. The difficulty originated in matters occurring during the war.

The railroads concentrating here are trying to agree upon establishing a Union Depot. Much interest is felt in the result.

THE INDIANS.

Movements of the Peace Commission.

ST. LOUIS, October 18.—The Indian Commission was at Fort Larned on the 12th, where they met Satana, head chief of the Kiowas, and several leading chiefs of other tribes, who will accompany the Commissioners to Medicine Lodge Creek. Gov. Crawford and Senator Ross, of Kansas, are with the Commission, and strongly oppose any temporizing policy with the Indians. In case treaties adequate to the security of absolute peace cannot be made, they will use all their influence to have a large number of troops stationed on the plains, and sufficient aid extended to the railroads to complete them. With the railroads finished they say the game will disappear, and with it the Indians.

A letter from Superintendent Murphy cautions the Commission against taking a large escort with them for fear the military force will frighten the Indians away from Medicine Lodge.

Nominations for Convention in Wilmington, N. C.

WILMINGTON, N. C., October 18.—The Republicans have nominated General J. C. Abbott and S. S. Ashley, white, and A. H. Galloway, colored, for the Convention. Some of the negroes are dissatisfied because there are not two of their color on the ticket.

LONDON, Midnight, October 18.—The following dispatch has just been received from Florence direct: "It is reported that Gen. Garibaldi has again escaped from Caprera, and that he left the Island on board an American ship."

The Garibaldians have appeared in the Western District between Rome and the sea. They have taken possession of the Railway running between the city of Rome and the seaport of Osta, and torn up the rails, preventing all communication. It is still believed here in Florence that the Governments of Italy and France have a perfect understanding with each other, and are really acting together in the treatment of the Roman question.

Dinner to the Derby Ministry

LONDON, October 18.—At a dinner at Manchester last evening to the Derby Ministry, Earl Derby defended the action of the Government on the Reform question, and replied to some of the attacks on the Reform Bill.

Lord Stanley, Secretary of Foreign Affairs, spoke of the disturbed condition of Europe, but declared that, notwithstanding the threatening condition of affairs, he still entertained hope that peace would be preserved. In reviewing the foreign relations of Great Britain with foreign Powers, he alluded to the controversy with the United States in regard to claims for indemnity arising out of the late war in that country. This controversy, he said, still remained open, but England had always dealt with America in a friendly temper, and time was already soothing the irritation which might have arisen on either side of the Atlantic.

MEXICO.

The Presidential Election—Bandits—Exiles.

HAVANA, October 18.—By the arrival of the steamer Louisiana, from Vera Cruz, we have advices from the City of Mexico to the 15th and Vera Cruz to the 14th inst. Juarez had received a majority of votes for President in the City of Mexico, but the proposition for the amendment of the Constitution was defeated. The general result of the Presidential election is not yet known.

Quleroyo, the companion of Marquez in his flight, had been discovered on the Texan frontier by a party of soldiers, but had succeeded in again escaping from his followers.

The roads in Mexico are infested by banditti, and are very unsafe for travelers.

Mr. Plumm, Secretary of Legation of the United States, had arrived at the City of Mexico. The Bolivian Minister had been received by President Juarez, and congratulated him on the great triumph of the Mexican arms.

By the steamer Louisiana two of the following persons, banished from Mexico, arrived here on their way to Europe: The widow of Miramon and her family; Imperial Ministers of Marine, Theophis; Interior, Juan de Dios Arrier; Foreign Affairs, Nicolas Portillia; General Roa, Counselor Escandon, and Bishops Ormachea and Zularcingo.

ARIZONA.

Indian Depredations—Stock Stolen.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 18.—Late advices from Arizona state that the Apaches made a raid on the town of Wickenburg, and carried off the entire stock of the place. The Indians were well mounted and equipped. There was no resistance or pursuit, as the cavalry had taken all the horses. The loss of stock closes the operations in Yuhzre county, the only speck of sunshine in the dark horizon of Arizona. The Indians continue their outrages in every direction. General Gregg, commanding, is concentrating for the war. Were it not for lack of troops and the stringency of orders at headquarters, more would have been accomplished.

The Best Thing Yet.

We have recently had sufficient evidence of the excellence of Mr. Speer's Port Grape Wine, which not only convinces us that all we can say in its praise is deserved, but that we are really conferring a favor on our readers in advising them to use it. The wine is a pure grape wine, entirely unmixed, and the most agreeable and delicious in favor of any we ever tasted. Of its medicinal qualities we entertain the very highest opinion, and upon the evidence of our own observations. Three bottles of this wine have nearly effected a perfect cure in the case of our little boy, who has been seven years prostrated

The Retrenchment Committee continued their investigation to-day in the Treasury Department, and are looking into the alleged overissues of fractional currency.

The Seven-Thirty Counterfeit Notes.

The secret service force of the Treasury Department say that they have discovered that the counterfeit seven-thirty notes were first printed in Philadelphia and simultaneously sold in Cincinnati, New York and Philadelphia. About twenty-four thousand dollars were passed in Cincinnati. There is good reason to believe that the Department is on the track of the counterfeiters, and will soon effect the arrest of the principal ones engaged in the work.

Reclamation of Bonds.

Secretary McCulloch has ordered a reclamation of the eighty-two bonds that are now in the loan branch of the Treasury Department to be made upon the parties from whom the bonds were received. If they refuse to make good the various amounts received from them, legal advice will be taken as to what steps shall be pursued to indemnify the Treasury.

The Virginia Election.

The Star this evening says that recent arrivals from Virginia represent political affairs in that State badly mixed, and it is now doubtful whether the election on Tuesday will result in a majority against the Convention. The Union party Conventions thus far have been controlled by the extreme confiscation men, who refused to compromise with the milder Republicans, but nominated men of their stripe as delegates. The result is that many Republicans will vote against a Convention, preferring that the State should remain as it now is.

The Maryland Case.

The witnesses summoned by the Judiciary Committee in the Maryland case do not respond very freely, and no examinations took place today.

The Impeachment Question.

The story that a majority of the members of the Judiciary Committee are now in favor of impeachment is telegraphed, it seems, on the authority of Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, a member of the Committee, who claims that the Chairman, Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, has been converted to the movement, thus making a bare majority of the Committee. But the latter has taken no vote since the first week of the session, when they stood four for impeachment, three for continuance and two (Democrats) for dismissing the matter. No additional action has been taken. The full Committee do not meet here until November 14.

Gen. Grant

Attended the Cabinet meeting to-day. There was a protracted session, lasting over three hours.

WASHINGTON, October 18.

RESUMPTION OF HOSTILITIES IN CRETE.

Official accounts from Crete to September 20th confirm private advices of the resumption of hostilities in that island by the Provisional Government of the Island. The idea of restoring the people to Turkish allegiance is scornfully rejected.

THE COUNTERFEIT SEVEN-THIRTIES.

Col. Woods, chief of the secret service division of the Treasury department, has had all his detectives at work in the service of discovering counterfeit seven-thirty notes. It is definitely ascertained that over 1,000 have been put upon the market, and that the plates were not made in Europe, but in this country. It is further stated that Philadelphia has been the leading quarters for engraving the plates. All the proceeding is said to be in the possession of the secret service officers. According to representations one of the gang of counterfeiters had become dissatisfied with the share that he forgot his discretion and commenced putting into circulation counterfeit tens and twenties bank notes, and upon the latter charge was arrested and held to bail in one of the very men whom Col. Woods pursued. He was identified as having passed a number of 7-30s on Brooklyn banks. His name is Cooper, and is known as a forger and he is now in prison awaiting the action of Solicitor Jordan and Col. Woods, who are both in New York now.

DIFFICULTY IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Charleston Courier of to-day, received to-night, has a private letter from Pendleton, S. C., reporting a difficulty as having taken place between colored and white citizens, arising from a disturbance of the meetings of the National Loyal League by the whites. Mr. Hunnicutt, of Tekoia, was killed. A detachment of troops has been sent to preserve order.

IRREGULARITY OF MAILS.

Complaints are plentiful against the Post-office Department for the irregularity of Western mails. Yesterday an order came from the President to the Postmaster General to remove Mr. Mount, route agent for mails on the route between Washington and Richmond, and appoint Mr. Tarbutton in his place. Mount are believed to be the beginning of wholesale dismissals.

THE LOUISVILLE CONVENTION.

Advices received from New Orleans state that the vote on Convention was 5,000 majority in favor of 15,000. It is expected the Convention will be convoked at an early day.

RICHMOND.

Gen. Imboden's Appeal—The Canvass.

RICHMOND, October 10.—General Imboden, with a view of making General Schofield a defendant in the mandamus, and to extend the remedies under the reconstruction act, under advice of counsel, has appealed from the decision of the Registration Board. General Schofield replied, sustaining the action of the Board. The canvass is being vigorously conducted by both parties, and both professes to be sanguine of success. A great Republican meeting is being in Capital Square this evening, now being addressed by Hunnicutt. General Washburne, of the Congressional Committee, and others are also addressing a meeting. The Conservatives are also holding a meeting.

A Peddler Robbed.

PHILADELPHIA, October 18.—James Rush, a watch peddler, went to Camden, yesterday afternoon, with five watches and, it is supposed, a large amount of money. His dead body was discovered last evening in Raightersville, a negro settlement below Camden. There were no marks of violence on the body, but he had been robbed of all his valuables. He apparently died from an apoplectic fit.

CITY MATTERS.

HOTEL ROBBERY.—On Thursday night some thief entered a room in Hare's Hotel, on Liberty street, occupied by Mr. Perry Lutton, and stole ninety dollars from that gentleman.

FALSE ALARM.—The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon from box 14, corner of Wood street and Diamond alley, was a false. A gentleman who was standing near the corner at the time the alarm was given says he saw no one open the box, but the box had been newly painted, and marks were visible where it had been wound up. No clue as to who had possession of the key with which the alarm was sounded has been obtained. Several engines and the hose carriages visited the spot, and the rascal, whoever he was, succeeded in raising considerable excitement.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—This afternoon, the ever attractive "Octoroon," will be presented for the matinee performance. In the evening, Mr. Frank Mayo will terminate his engagement, when the successful drama, "Cadet La Perle," will be performed.

On Monday evening, Mr. Frank S. Chanfrau, one of the very best comedians on the American stage, will commence an engagement, and as our citizens have thus far in the season been treated exclusively to the legitimate and sensational drama, we may look for crowded houses during the comedy week. Mr. Chanfrau will present his great specialty "Sam" during his engagement.

THE SLANDER CASE OF BURNS VS. HUNTER.

Charge of the Court.

Verdict Against Rev. Wm. Hunter.

At the opening of Court Judge Sterrett proceeded to charge the jury in the case of George Burns vs. Rev. William Hunter. We give below a synopsis of the charge:

After defining the crime of incest, (alleged to have been charged against the plaintiff by the defendant,) the Judge said: Although marriages between persons nearly related to each other are clearly contrary to the law of nature, it is somewhat difficult to fix the point at which they cease to be so. Hence it became necessary to declare by positive law what the prohibited degrees are. All civilized countries, with rare exceptions, have agreed that marriages between those lineally related to each other, are unnatural and offensive to good morals, but beyond this point rules and opinions have been various. At common law, incest was not an indictable offense, but in all well regulated governments it has been made so by positive enactments.

The Judge then gave the statute on the subject, and recited the degrees of affinity and consanguinity prohibited by the law. He also quoted the section of the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church, under which a man was forbidden to marry his deceased wife's sister. We quote: "If you find that the words charged in the declaration were uttered by the defendant substantially as charged, and in the sense there imputed to them, they are actionable; and, if spoken in malice, they constitute a gross slander. It is sufficient if they were spoken in that sense but once. If repeated frequently it would be an aggravation of the offense, and be strongly indicative of malevolence. Such a charge, if true, would subject the plaintiff to indictment and conviction for a crime imputing moral turpitude, and subject him to fine and infamous punishment. Where this is the case the words are actionable.

"Malice is an essential ingredient in slander, but it may be implied from the nature of the charge made. If one say of another that he is a thief, or that he committed murder, the law will imply malice, and the burthen is on the party making the charge to rebut the presumption. In this case the plaintiff has not relied alone on the legal presumption arising from the utterance of the words in the sense charged, but he has offered testimony for the purpose of proving express malice. He has shown that, at different times, the defendant had used very abusive language towards him, such as saying that he was a thief—had stolen his character—that he was an assassin two-fold worse than Booth; that he was the greatest liar in Findley township; that he was a negro worshipper; that he worshiped a black god, &c. Such language has none of the ear-marks of charity or fraternal regard. It savors more of the pit than of the pulpit, and strongly indicative of malice. But in this connection it must be borne in mind that similar harsh and abusive language

The Daily Commercial

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1867.

THE COMMERCIAL is the largest daily paper in the State, and gives daily one-fourth more reading than any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that uses the telegraph liberally, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

MR. WEED, referring to the fact that the General Committee of his wing of the Republicans in NEW YORK have resolved to support the Republican State ticket, says: "In view of a Presidential canvass, now near at hand, with every reason to apprehend a repetition of the frauds of 1864, a Loyal and Disloyal Party, the friends with whom we have politically associated will be found, whose we belong, in the ranks of a Party that sustained and upheld the Government in its struggle with Rebellion."

THE Hartford Press says "the next President will be nominated by the people, not by party leaders." The thing is as good as done already, and as a general thing the politicians are promptly ratifying. The most genuine outbreak of enthusiasm at the great Cooper Institute Republican meeting, Wednesday evening, was when the name of Gen. GRANT was mentioned; more especially when one of the speakers proposed him for the Presidency.

MR. JOHNSON, it is said, has a way of "shutting up" the Democrats, when they come around him to claim large rewards, which he does not intend to grant, on account of the October elections. He tells them that in Pennsylvania they would have had thousands instead of hundreds for SHARSWOOD, had they indorsed him; while in Ohio they would have crowned their great gains with a Democratic Governor, had they dropped VALLANDIGHAM & Co., and indorsed him. It is in this way, according to report, that Mr. JOHNSON is creating "a coolness" between himself and the Democrats.

THE Pittsburgh Post calls frantically for the impeachment of Governor GEARY, because some soldiers voted in Philadelphia. A detective would tell you at once that all this means some offense or other which needs covering up, with no adequate material to do it. Having, pursuant to WALLACE's circular, committed frauds in a dozen counties, and standing in dread of exposure and the defeat of SHARSWOOD after all, this cry of impeachment is raised purely to divert public attention. It will not succeed. We call upon our friends at Harrisburg to do their duty fearlessly and thoroughly. Let us have justice, and nothing short of it, done.

THE names of the BENNETTS have been dropped from the New York Herald without so much as a word of explanation. Nobody appears either to publish or edit the paper,—and this may be said not alone because no name appears. The Herald unmistakably is not what it once was, either in influence or prosperity. For the last few years it has been run by a variety of persons, and plucked to an extent that would have destroyed it, had it not been like the goose whose feathers grew so fast and were abundant that it could be continually plucked and still live. What is the matter with the Herald, is coming to be quite a common question.

UNLESS we misinterpret the doings and sayings of the Republicans of the State of New York, they mean to win the election next month. Everything is being done to solidify the party, by dropping side issues, getting free from entangling alliances, and conciliating every shade and name into a harmonious and effective support of the State ticket. The Cooper Institute meeting, Wednesday evening, was significant, in its numbers, harmony, the kind of men who spoke, and what they said and omitted to say—in all of which can be perceived that the lessons of the October elections are not misunderstood by the Republicans of New York.

HOW TO MAKE NOMINATIONS.

The Chicago Tribune comes out for the "Crawford County System" for making nominations, as the most practicable for correcting existing abuses. That "system" simply provides for a preliminary election to ascertain whom the people want for candidates, and disposes of the present corrupt and corrupting mode of making nominations. It has been suggested that the Republican City Committee could not do a better thing than adopt the "Crawford" System in making nominations for the ensuing city election. Should the new system be adopted, provision should be made for insuring a perfectly free and fair expression of the voice of the Republicans. It does not mean that everybody shall participate, but a fair and square proceeding and a deliberate registering of the preferences of Republicans only. In supporting the proposed change the Tribune says:

> The practical effect of this plan is to break up the system of professional delegates—that is, that class of persons who demand and are paid money for the use of their names and influence and for their votes in electing the tickets they thus form. It breaks up the practice of buying and selling votes in convention. It breaks up the practice of carrying hired voters from one precinct to another. It breaks up the practice of double and triple voting. It confines voting exclusively to the legal Republican voters, whose names and residences have been ascertained by previous registration. It secures a full, fair and honest choice of candidates, without the interposition or that class or persons who trade and traffic in primary meetings and conventions.
> Unless suitable provision should be made for confining the selection to Republicans, the change would be going from bad to worse. It would be easy, however, to make such provision, and we think a trial of the "Crawford" system would be productive of good results and satisfy Republicans generally.

THE NEWSPAPER.

Few things strike an intelligent foreigner with more surprise, on visiting our country, than the number of newspapers, and the general reading of them. In some of the old countries of Europe, the issue of newspapers is hampered and restricted by the regulations which tyranny finds it necessary to impose, the object being to limit knowledge, rather than extend it, and to suppress thought in the popular mind rather than aid it. In this country newspapers of every shade of character abound. We do not maintain that they are all good or useful, but we hold the condition of the country to be better, even with all the intermixture of weak, worthless and vicious publications, than it would be under the reign of such ignorance and despotism as exist where to the masses of the people newspapers are unknown.

The newspapers of a country represent its character and condition. They are photographs of its business, its enterprise, its politics, its intelligence, its morals and its sentiments. Every class of the people, every department of human interest, and all the passing events and changes of society are represented in the newspapers. No enterprise or interest is expected to attain success without some aid from this potent auxiliary.

The newspaper may be called an institution in this country. As such, it has been vastly strengthened and improved during the past few years. The means of rapidly communicating news have been liberally employed by the press in the interior, which has thus obliterated almost all the margin of difference between it and the metropolitan press. The reader of the COMMERCIAL has the same general news in his morning paper that the reader of the New York Tribune or Times has in his. The political talk or action at the Capital last evening, is presented in the COMMERCIAL to the guests of the Monongahela House as early this morning as the Washington papers give it to them at Willard's. In addition to the equality in other respects, the home paper has the decided advantage as to the local news and the advocacy of local interests. The live paper is, to its readers, like telescopic spectacles, and like a far-reaching hearing trumpet, enabling them to hear and see all that is going on in the great world. The representative at Washington or Harrisburg is applauded or censured by some of his constituents for his last night's speech, before his eyes are opened the following morning.

There are papers of all qualities as well as all kinds. The moral tone of the press is not uniform. A vicious and corrupting paper will not be without patrons and readers. But small sprinklings of poison on the food will not more surely impair health than frequent contact with the principles and incentives to vice in a newspaper will corrupt the mind and morals of the reader. A paper that, without professing to inculcate religious doctrine, maintains a high and pure moral tone, adds greatly to its value, whatever worth it may have besides as a newspaper or a political journal. Such a one, along with the light that it radiates, diffuses also a genial influence in favor of right, honor and purity wherever it is circulated. With such papers, freely as the light and the air circulating through the country, there is little ground to fear for its liberties.

THE ROMAN TROUBLES

The famous Italian skies do not, just now, look down upon a country, like themselves, clear, beautiful and bright. An ominous cloud hangs over Rome, and its horizon is darkened with gathering storms. It is a purely civil revolution with which the Party of Action are threatening Rome. It is directed against the civil government, the absolute monarchy of the Pope, the revolutionists being all good Catholics in their religion. Politically, the aspirations of the Italians are very like those professed by the Fenians—the desire for freedom, to their native land, from a civil government that many of the people hate.

Whether the revolutionary party will immediately succeed in getting possession of Rome and make it the capital of Italy is a question that yet hangs in doubt, but is destined, from the urgency of the case, to be soon solved. The Italian people are in favor of it almost unanimously. VICTOR EMANUEL is no doubt in favor of it, but is, as yet, hampered by the treaty of September, binding him not to invade the Pope's territory. With NAPOLEON, who appears to have had control of the Pope's destiny for years past, it seems to be only a question of time—whether the civil government of the Pope shall come to an end now or not till the death of PIO NONO.

It seems to be conceded, on all hands, that what is called the temporal power, that is, civil or political functions and prerogatives, is about to be finally separated from the ecclesiastical office of the Bishop of Rome. How this may effect his religious influence, we do not take upon us to conjecture, but of the benefit resulting to the people there can be no doubt, whether they shall, as in 1849, organize a Republic, similar to that of ancient Rome, or, which is more probable, become the subjects of United Italy, under VICTOR EMANUEL. This temporal power has ceased to be of any account among the nations of Europe, except as a part of Italy, and no good reason can be seen for its continuance. Should it fall and become merged in the Italian Kingdom, through the decision or indecision of the French Emperor, it would be a fitting method of closing the career of a temporal or secular authority in the hands of a Bishop of Rome, since the first endowment with that power was the gift of a French ruler several centuries ago. And if history tells the truth, the gift was less creditable to the Bishop who received it, than the surrender of it can be to PIUS, the present holder. From PEPIN, the usurper, to NAPOLEON, from the first Bishop that held it to the last, the temporal power of Popes has done little for the benefit of mankind.

The State Christian Convention.

We earnestly hope that our friends will bear in mind the State Christian Convention, which is to be held in this city next week. It will convene on Tuesday evening, at seven and a half o'clock, in the First Presbyterian Church, (Rev. S. F. Scovel, pastor,) on Wood, between Fifth and Sixth streets, for Organization, conference and prayer. The convention will continue in session on Wednesday and Thursday, and on Thursday evening the anniversary exercises of the Young Men's Christian Association will take place.

The Preliminary Business Committee, to whom was referred the selection of topics for discussion in the convention, have reported the following:

I. THE CHRISTIAN.

How can we increase our personal devotion, and sense of responsibility, and best secure preparation for Christian work?

II. THE CHURCH.

How shall we develope individual Churches; manifest our essential unity, and improve devotional meetings?

III. THE CHURCH AND THE WORLD.

How shall we ascertain destitutions; reach special classes; use the Gospel to remote neighborhoods; so improve church arrangements as to secure a larger attendance, and overcome the special difficulties arising from the temptations and excitements of city life?

IV. THE CHURCH AND CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS.

What are the relations, primary aim and object of Young Men's Christian Associations; their best methods of operation, with instances of their acquisition and efficiency?

V. THE CHURCH, CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS, AND OUR COUNTRY.

What special demands do the vastness of our territory, our rapidly increasing population, and the character of the numerous immigrants, make upon all Christians and Christian organizations in this land?

The Preliminary Business Committee consists of the Rev. S. F. Scovel, Hon. Henry W. Williams, Major William Frew, M. A. Woodward, Esq., and J. W. F. White, Esq.

George H. Stewart, Esq., of Philadelphia, D. L. Moody, Esq., of Chicago, H. Thane Miller, of Cincinnati, and other eminent Christian workers, with delegations from Cincinnati and other cities, have promised to be present.

Every City Church in sympathy with the objects of the Convention, is requested to send a delegation of its pastor and a number of lay members, and to unite in constant prayer to the Great Head of the Church for the presence and guidance of the Holy spirit.

The attendance will, from present indications, be large, and it is therefore very necessary in order that accommodations may be secured for delegates, that the members of the different churches report immediately to the Church Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association. with full particulars as to their name and residence, and the number of delegates to be received, and where there is no Church Committee the report may be sent to A. B. Riggs, Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street. Parties who would prefer it can contribute for any number to be provided for at some of the hotels, under arrangements made by the Association.

The Church Committees will hold their last meeting at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, on next Monday afternoon, at four o'clock, when final reports will be received.

The public are cordially invited to attend all the discussions and proceedings of the Convention.

On the 25th and 26th the Allegheny county Sunday School Teachers' Institute will also hold their annual Convention, in Christ Methodist Episcopal Church, Penn street.

THE DEMOCRATS in Ohio take the election of Hayes, the Republican Governor, with bad grace, and begin to talk about contesting his title to the office, on the ground that negroes voted to the extent of three thousand. The description of voters they talk about are the votes of men of mixed blood, in whom the blood of the white race preponderates, and who are voters according to a decision made by the Supreme Court of Ohio when it was Democratic.

REFERRING to the statement that Mrs. Lincoln "has consented" to have a subscription opened for her benefit, the Chicago Republican says it is "the most shameful and humiliating" phase of the whole business, and adds:

> If this report be correct, it serves still further to confirm what has long been the conviction of those most intimate with her, that she is a confirmed monomaniac. The papers which gloat over this unfortunate mental condition of Mrs. Lincoln are hopelessly lost to all self-respect and regard for the good name of this country.

CHARLES A. DANA will be the President of the new Associated Press arrangement in New York, organized under a law of Connecticut. The Herald is at the bottom of it, and some New England papers are said to be members. Dr. D. H. Craig, the manager of the old association, is to be the general agent. An effort will be made to induce Western papers to join. As yet no terms and prices are, gentlemen, so will be your sales.

VALLANDIGHAM threatens terrible things in case Ohio does not send him to the Senate. It is already apparent that the Democracy have a nice little quarrel on their hands, and that VAL. will not be so easily thrust aside.

THE effects of the law forbidding Sunday liquor selling in New York are very marked. Prior to this law, there were in the Metropolitan District 9,250 liquor shops, of which 5,000 did not even pay for a license. The law has diminished the number of liquor shops by 3,000, and has wholly stopped the sale of liquor in the grocery stores. The number of arrests on Sundays has decreased one-half. On the first fifteen Sundays of its operation, the number of arrests on Sunday than any other day. Now there are less than half as many. Then the city derived little or no revenue to offset the expense of the crime and pauperism produced by rum. The law has contributed $2,500,000 to the relief of our taxpayers.

PRESIDENTIAL.

The Drift of Popular Sentiment.

Not since the days of Jackson has there been anything like the manifestation of popular sentiment at the present time in favor of General Grant for the Presidency. Of the Republican press the Tribune stands almost alone in opposing him—more, by innuendo, however, than openly. Concerning the Tribune the Cincinnati Gazette says:

> We do not forget that last spring, when the controversy was sowing discord in the party, and conservative Republicans were, in consideration of public patronage, playing to the hands of Andrew Johnson, Grant stood side by side with Stanton, pointed out danger ahead and prevailed upon Congress to policy has been made apparent. Rumors have been current that Congress had remained in session. We must also remark that the people much. The people have confidence, and whose Radicalism no longer doubts, are satisfied that General Grant is true to the principles of the Republican party, including impartial suffrage, and that he fully indorses the Congressional plan of reconstruction.

The Lafayette (Ind.) Journal is emphatic in its indorsement of Grant. Before the Ohio election it predicted that in case the result was adverse, Mr. Chase would disappear from the arena, and General Grant would become the recognized favorite. We quote:

> The result has verified the prediction. Grant stands first in the Republican Party. The enthusiasm his candidacy would inspire is needed to rescue the country from the apathy produced by the selfishness, villainy and imbecility of politicians. Besides, his great firmness, wisdom, reticence and patriotism, are regarded at the head of the Government, its true to liberty, and possesses the elements of a popular leader. The great body of Republicans who have declined to support Mr. Chase, owing to doubts and misgivings, and incompetent leadership, and the folly of the Democratic party in re-organizing with the hordes of peculators who, through venal Congressional recommendation, or equally venal Executive preferment, fastened like leeches upon the Treasury, would at once fall in to vote for and carried by Grant. If the result of the late elections is the knell of Democracy, and that is certain, all the Presidential scheme of the politicians, so far as that of Chase is concerned, are already parceled out, every well-wisher of the country ought to rejoice. Elected as he would be to save a sinking party, debt to public leaders, such a President the country would be free from party trammels, and free from reward or enemies to punish at his country's expense.

The N. Y. Times devotes a long article to the subject, in the course of which it is said:

> No one can doubt, or fail to see, that the sentiment of the whole country inclines to favor as that man. Nine-tenths of all the Republican journals and publications of the country look upon his nomination as an absolute necessity, and an equally decided majority of every Republican State Convention which has yet been held has declared in favor of his nomination. Even the Democratic party, as well as the welfare of the country, would be seen to demand his nomination.

The Cleveland Herald, like most of the leading journals of Ohio, speaks plainly. It says:

> General Grant, having become the recognized candidate of the Republican party, becomes also, as a matter of course, the target for Democratic malice, misrepresentation and slander. He has already been compelled to run the gauntlet of these hounds, and upon the two calumnious reports set afloat: one to the effect that he had given instructions to remove the impeachment Committee, hostile to the Reconstruction plan of Congress, and the other that he had appointed himself much pleased with the result of the recent elections. The public will see in the slight effort of poisoned arrows at General Grant's fair fame, only a new birth of Democratic enterprise.

The Youngstown (Ohio) Courier, says, "with the Republican masses Grant is the favorite, and the last elections has had the effect of practically making him their nominee." We quote from the Courier:

> With Grant as the Republican candidate for the Presidential chair, the opposing party sinks at once politically to fair water level, and will be utterly unable effectively to stay the torrent of the popular voice and vote; the latter of which will roll on its hundreds of thousands majority, against secession, treason and the sole-called Democracy of to-day.

The Butler Press, in an able article on the lessons of the elections, points out the dangers to which the Republican party is exposed, and concludes as follows:

> It says as plainly as ballots can speak: Stop, Mr. Sumner, you are going too fast. Hood, Morris, Stevens, Kelley, Wilson, Ca., you are driving it all too heavy. Take care, Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, you are dragging it too fast. But it has made one thing inevitable—the nomination of General Grant for the next Presidency, whose name we this week raise to our mast head in the belief that he is the only man to save the Republican party from annihilation and the country from perdition.

THE Uniontown (Pa.) Standard raises the name of Gen. GRANT, and says:

> With this great captain as our standard-bearer, an indignant and outraged people will rock, roll and rally to a glorious, triumphant victory of loyalty over treason. Then will the country be restored and the country united, prosperous and happy. We unfurl his name at our mast-head.

The Johnstown Tribune has placed the name of General Grant at the head of its editorial columns.

Senator WILSON, in his letter to the Cooper Institute Meeting, says: "I have not doubted that the illustrious hero, who is as true to the cause of equal rights and impartial justice, as to the demands of patriotism, will be the chosen leader of the Republican hosts in the coming contest."

An important decision as to the status of mercantile agencies has just been rendered in the United States Court in New York, by Justice Nelson. The suit was brought for libel by John and Horace Beardsley, of Norwalk, Ohio, against Lewis Tappan, of the well-known Tappan's Mercantile Agency. The defendant, in his business of mercantile agent, communicated, through his clerks, facts to certain parties in New York, seriously affecting the credit of the plaintiffs, and which, on the trial, raised the question arose whether the communication made by Tappan was of a privileged character, such as to exempt him from the consequences of its publication. The court decided that if the defendant himself had communicated the information to a person applying for it in good faith, the communication itself might have been a privileged one; but that it was not given to it by recording the libelous words in a book, to which others had access, and to whom they were communicated, though standing in the relation of customers, deprived the communication of its otherwise privileged cha acter. The principle upon which privileged communications rest, which of themselves would be false and libelous, implies confidence and sincerity between individuals, and is inconsistent with the idea of a communication made by a society, or congregation of persons, or by a private company to the public generally. The case came before the court on an application for a new trial, which was denied.

ARRANGEMENTS are now being made to hold, in the city of Philadelphia, commencing on the first Wednesday of November, a National Convention, composed of delegates from the different branches of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. It is expected that the Convention will be one of great interest and importance, judging from the character and numbers of delegates already appointed, which will be greatly increased by the appointment of delegates by the Presbyteries and Synods that meet during the month.

IN Illinois the dry weather continues. In Chicago wells and cisterns with water in them are becoming scarcer every day in the rural districts." Cattle can find scarcely enough of pasture to keep them from starving in some localities. Dairymen and farmers are obliged to sell off their live stock, owing to the premature exhaustion of the grass crop. In the meantime the price of butter is "going up," to the great regret of people generally.

ONE BY ONE.

One by one the sands are flowing,
One by one the moments fall;
Some are coming, some are going,
Do not strive to grasp them all.
One by one thy duties wait thee,
Let thy whole strength go to each;
Let no future dream elate thee,
Learn thou first what these can teach.

One by one—bright gifts of Heaven—
Joys are sent thee here below;
Take them readily when given,
Ready, too, to let them go.
One by one thy griefs shall meet thee,
Do not fear an armed band;
One will fade as others greet thee,
Shadows passing through the land.

Do not look at life's long sorrow,
See how small each moment's pain;
God will help thee for to-morrow,
Every day be strength again.
Strength laid by for use is slowly
Has its task to do or bear;
Lengthens the crown, and holely,
If thou set each gem with care.

Do not linger with regretting,
Or for passing hours despond;
Nor, thy daily toil forgetting,
Look too eagerly beyond.
Hours are golden links, God's token,
Reaching Heaven; but one by one
Take them, lest the chain be broken
Ere the pilgrimage be done.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

he latest reports from England are that igh the harvests had somewhat improved, e was still evidence of a market for very e imports. The trade in wheat for the first e weeks p September shows that there was orted in that time 2,258,583 bushels, against 369 bushels in corresponding time in 1866— increase of 1,462,214 bushels. The exports the first three weeks of September were 624 bushels, against 26,004 in same time in 5—an increase of 105,610 bushels. In the e time the increased import of flour was r forty thousand barrels, and the increased orts but about three hundred barrels.

he dearest living in the world is probably t which is procured in New York. A com- ative statement of prices in New York, iladelphia, Paris, London, Berlin and other minent cities in all parts of the world, shows t New York is the most expensive of all in matter of food. The whole cause of this al misfortune is said to be that the food it- ferred to the consumers through too many ddle men, all of whom must take their per- ntage.

Charles L. Raymond, a stock dealer, belong- g to Clayton, Adams county, Illinois, was st in St. Louis by two sharpers, on the Olive eet cars, Wednesday evening, who held out ducements to him to purchase stock. Pro- cing a bottle of whisky, they asked him to ink. He compiled and became unconscious, e liquor being drugged. He was subsequently ieved of $5,000 in greenbacks, and other pers valued at $1,000. No clue as yet to the bbers.

It is thought probable that Congress, on re- sembling, will set itself at work on subjects of portant legislation, and prominent among ese is the question of the currency. A prop- ition, it is understood, will be urged to rther increase the currency by adding fifty to hundred millions to the present volume of tional bank notes, to supply an alleged want the South and Southwest, the present bank e circulation emanating entirely from banks the North, and East and West.

The yellow fever, it seems, is a respecter of rsons. It has been remarked in New Orleans at not one of sixty workmen employed in lay- g pavement there, and working all day amid e fumes of tar, has caught the yellow fever.

The New York hotels the past year did well. he Fifth Avenue hotel is reported to have ade a clear profit of $125,000; the St. Nicho- s, $110,000; the Metropolitan, $100,000; the stor, $75,000; the Brevoort, $60,000; the larendon, $50,000; the Gramercy Park, $50,- 00; the Barcelona (Spanish) $75,000; the nion Square, $50,000; the Everett, $50,000; e Brandreth $25,000; the Howard, $40,000; e Spingler, $30,000; the St. James, $40,000, id the Hoffman $60,000.

A new electric light has been introduced in ew York. It is the invention of Professor ollette, of Paris. The light was so strong at the master of a revenue cutter read a ewspaper by it, six miles off, in the Narrows.

PERSONAL.

—Santa Anna writes from his prison house i Mexico to a relative on Staten Island that he as no apprehensions for his life at the hands f his countrymen. He says he expects they ill officially decree his banishment from Mex- an soil, but he is pretty well assured they will either hurt a hair of his head nor deprive him f a dollar's worth of his property. He thinks e will be able to rejoin his friends in the United tates before Christmas day. Santa Anna is much more hopeful as to his fate, it must be dded, than are many of his friends here.

—Although Jere Black has, doubtless, coun- elled Mr. Johnson to extreme measures, he has ointedly expressed the opinion in private that he late amnesty was issued by the President holly without authority, as, in his opinion, ince the repeal of the 13th section of the act of 3d, there had been no warrant in law for such proclamation.

—George Augustus Sala, being bankrupt, nenaces America with a very long visit.

—Young Robert Lincoln, son of the late President, is admitted to the Chicago Bar. He s well spoken of, and is popular among his acquaintances.

—Hon. E. M. Stanton, who arrived at Co- lumbus, Ohio, on Tuesday night on a private visit, declined the public reception designed by the Union Club, though he expressed his thanks for the honor tendered by the Club. He did not think that he had done more for the great cause than the least of the Unionists of Ohio, and assured the Committee that waited on him, that his services during the coming campaign would be entirely at the disposal of his friends, especially those of Ohio.

—The great event of the week, at Columbus, Ohio, was the marriage of Gen. J. W. Forsythe, of Gen. Sheridan's staff, to Miss Lizzie Dennison, daughter of ex-Postmaster General Dennison, which took place at Trinity Church Wednesday evening. The church was crowded with the elite of the city, as well as by many distinguished strangers. Among the notables present were Hon. E. M. Stanton, Gen. Phil. Sheridan, Gen. Robt. C. Schenck, Hon. E. J. Jewett and President S. S. L'Hommedieu. The happy pair were attended by the following distinguished party: Miss Winslow, of Cincinnati, Miss Swaine, Miss Annie Dennison, Miss Ridgeway, Miss Lucy Noll, of Columbus, and Miss Morse: Gen. P. H. Sheridan, Col. W. Noll Dennison, Gen. C. G. Sawtelle, Col. G. A. Forsythe, Gen. E. Upton and Col. T. Rodenbaugh.

AND
GRAND
Presentation Enterprise,
HAS PROVEN
A WONDERFUL SUCCESS.
CAPITAL, TICKETS AND PRIZES
INCREASED FROM
$1,287,148 to $1,500,000
Making this the most Stupendous and Successful Presentation Scheme ever inaugurated in the World.

Our Agents have received orders for over 100,000 Tickets more than our original issue, and the Managers being desirous of filling the orders and supplying the demand, have decided to increase the tickets from 1,287,148 to 1,500,000.
The Committee appointed at the first Concert have decided to distribute the Prizes at the third and last Concert, which will take place at
IRVING HALL,
IN NEW YORK CITY,
ON
Thursday, Oct. 24th, 1867.
TICKETS ONE DOLLAR EACH.
A Prize with Every Ticket.

PROSPECTUS.

A number of the leading Bankers and Merchants of New York, in consideration of the great success which has attended many of the Charitable Presentations, Entertainments of the day, have formed themselves into a company, with the view of inaugurating an enterprise which, while it shall present them a fair profit, shall offer greater advantages to ticket-purchasers than any yet presented, and which being conducted upon a perfectly legitimate and business basis, shall be free from those objectionable features which have characterized many of these enterprises.
To this end they have consigned the sale of tickets, and the registering of the same, to Clark, Webster & Co., Bankers and Managers, No. 62 Broadway, N. Y., who will keep the records in their custody until the day of the Grand Presentation Entertainment, when they will be handed over to a committee selected by the audience to make an impartial distribution of presents.
A reference to the number of presents and the general plan of distribution, given below, will convince even the most skeptical of the great advantages which will accrue to all who participate in the enterprise; and the Commercial and Financial standing of the Company, and the Managers and Bankers thereof, will, they hope, prove a sufficient guaranty of the fairness and impartiality with which everything in connection with the scheme will be conducted, and that the interests of ticket-holders will be guarded strictly watched over and guarded. In fact, it is the very aim of the Managers to make such arrangements for the mutual benefit of whoever shall purchase a ticket, that they will avoid any and every thing which could in the slightest degree diminish the profits which are likely to accrue to all who invest.

CITY MATTERS.

BASE BALL.—The Allegheny B. B. Club and the Mutual, of East Liberty, will play a match game on Monday next, at two o'clock, on the grounds of the former. Some fine playing is anticipated.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the Educational Association of Western Pennsylvania will be held this morning at ten o'clock, in the hall of the Fourth Ward School House, Pittsburgh. An address will be delivered by Prof. W. D. Henkle, of Salem, Ohio.

THE ROBBERY.—The till of the Globe Exchange, owned by Wm. Allison, in the Allegheny Diamond, was robbed on Thursday night of about twenty dollars in money. A man named James Davidson was arrested, charged with the theft, and was placed in the lock-up to await a hearing. He was found in the cellar under the saloon, and when arrested he said he had taken the money as a joke, and intended to return it.

MAGOOZLER AT ST. LOUIS.—The celebrated Pittsburgh horse "Magoozler" has achieved another victory at St. Louis. A dispatch, under date of the 18th inst., says: "In a race at the State Trotting Park yesterday, between Brown George and running mates, and pacing horses Magoozler and John Tolle, the latter horses Brown won the race. Quickest time, 2.20½. Brown George was withdrawn after the second heat." Brown George is a horse of considerable note in the East, and Magoozler's achievement is by no means an ordinary one.

OFFICERS OF POST NO. 88, G. A. R.—The following are the officers elect of Post No. 88, Grand Army of the Republic, which was organized in the Fifth ward, Allegheny City, on Wednesday evening: Post Commandant, Abram Patterson; Senior Vice Commandant, W. C. Cooke; Junior Vice Commandant, W. K. Nowland; Adjutant, Benjamin Louther; Quartermaster, James Baker; Surgeon, David Speer; Officer of the Day, Henry Harner; Officer of the Guard, George Ohio. The election for Chaplain was deferred until next meeting night, which will be on Friday evening next, when the officers elect will be duly installed by District Commander Mountsch. The Post will meet every Friday evening in Union Hall, on Beaver avenue.

PERSONAL.—Lieut. Wm. L. Foulk, 38th Infantry, U. S. A., is now in this city, having recently arrived in this city, with his family, from Fort Kearney, to perform the sad duty of burying his only daughter, whose death we have already noticed. Lieut. Foulk has been in command at Fort Kearney, as Quartermaster and Commissary, since the 15th of May last, and having been ordered with his command to Fort Saunders, was about proceeding thither when he learned of the death of his daughter, and immediately obtained twenty days' leave of absence from Gen. Augur. He will leave on Monday next, and assume the duties of his new command immediately on reaching his destination. From indomitable energy and fine executive ability of Lieut. Foulk render his services valuable to the government, and will no doubt secure his promotion in due time.

Improvements on Wood and Fifth Streets—The Nicolson Pavement.

The laying of the public sewers on Wood and Fifth streets, have progressed very satisfactorily since the commencement of the work, and are now nearly completed. Many of the citizens residing along the line of the streets have taken advantage of their open condition, and connected their premises with the main sewers by means of private drains. Mr. Allen, the contractor, has pushed the work forward vigorously, and has endeavored to accommodate the public as much as possible, having had two sets of hands employed since the cutting was made through Smithfield street, at its intersection with Fifth, he excavated one half the street and covered it over with boards before interfering with the latter, thus keeping this public thoroughfare open for trade, at a personal expense of several hundred dollars. This accommodation can be more readily appreciated from the fact that under his contract Mr. Allen had authority to close up the street until the completion of the work.

The re-grading of Wood street has nearly been completed, and Mr. Allen will commence on Wednesday to place upon it the new Nicolson pavement. The lumber, which has been contracted for in Cleveland, will arrive on Monday, and will be sawed into the proper shapes at one of the manufactruring establishmants near the Point. The improvement is under the charge of Henry A. Moore, Esq., City Engineer, who thoroughly understands his business, and who gives the work his undivided attention.

Street Commissioner Hunter yesterday succeeded in disposing of the cobble stones which were formerly used in paving Wood street, and which will be superseded by the Nicolson pavement, to parties who had contracted for laying a number of streets in the borough of Birmingham. The principal portion of the stones are in good condition, and the funds realized from their sale will be used to help towards defraying the expenses of the improvement.

SUBURBAN RESIDENCE AND HANDSOME GROUNDS on Terrace avenue, Oakland. On Thursday, October 24th, at 2 P. For particulars we refer our readers to advertisement of Smithson, Palmer & Co., Auctioneers, 55 and 57 Fifth street.

"PEACE hath her victories no less renowned than those of war," and first among them must be named the triumphs of modern discovery in removing the ills that "flesh is heir to," and especially those by which the delicate membranes and tissues of the scalp and hair are afflicted. "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" is the great antidote to wigs, baldness and grey hair, contains no minera or deleterious qualities, and is universally admitted to be the finest article known.

Take notice hereof, you who have detected the premature evidences of age—the tell-tale whitening of the locks, the unnatural thinness of the covering which nature designed should go with you to the grave. A word to the wise is sufficient.

FOR ALL THE NEWEST PUBLICATIONS go to Hogle & Chambers, No. 74 Fifth street.

SPENCE, of No. 73 Market street, offers at moderate prices a splendid variety of Cloaks, Sacques, Basques, etc., adapted to Fall and Winter wear. Also, trimmings, buttons, bugles, &c.

FOR ALL THE PICTORIAL Magazines and Illustrated Weeklies, go to Hogle & Chambers, No. 74 Fifth street.

DRESS GOODS.—We now have a splendid assortment, and at very low prices, on the Northeast corner Fourth and Market streets. C. Hanson Love & Bro.

PETROLEO-CALCIUM GAS.—We are glad to learn that this most invaluable improvement of the age in the process of manufacturing gas, is meeting with the highest success. It is made expressly for grafting stores in the City, from an almost valueless product of petroleum oil, (residuum) in combination with lime or lime and coal, and is so simple that two thousand feet of gas may be made by any hand of stable boy of ordinary intelligence in three hours. This gas has been thoroughly tested and pronounced the best extant. Address the Petroleo-Calcium Gas Company, Wheeling, West. Va.

Mr. George A. Kelly:

DEAR SIR—I have been troubled for some years with the complaint described by your advertisements of Dr. Sargent's Domestic or Backache Pills, and concluded to give them a trial, and am glad to say they afforded me immediate relief. I cheerfully recommend them to any who may be suffering from like symptoms, feeling confident they will do all you claim for them. DAVID SMITH.
